

JAMIE PRICE

612 East Capitol Street NE, Apt. 4. Washington, DC 20003

(202) 680-9410

jprice8@gmu.edu

EDUCATION

BA	Lawrence University	Religion	June 1972
MA	University of Chicago	Religion	June 1976
Ph.D.	University of Chicago	Theology	December 1980

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Sargent Shriver Peace Institute

Washington, DC

2006 – 2010 Executive Director

- Developed infrastructure and systems for the newly established Sargent Shriver Peace Institute, including: website, financial systems, investment protocols, and program offices at the Institute for Conflict Analysis and Resolution at George Mason University
- Guided management of $10 million endowment ($450k annual budget)
- Staffed and worked with engaged family Board to develop and pursue mission
- Managed contracts for the creation, production, PBS broadcast, and national publicity campaign for the documentary film, American Idealist: The Story of Sargent Shriver
- Developed and pursued a research program on the method in peacebuilding practiced by Sargent Shriver, with particular focus on the moral, spiritual, and public policy dimensions of Shriver's method, and specifically with regard to its implications for transforming America's 'culture wars,' and religiously motivated conflict in general
- Researched and directed the writing and production of The Only Americans Welcome, an interactive, documentary-style theatrical performance piece that dramatizes the method in peacebuilding institutionalized by Shriver in his creation of the Peace Corps
- Co-facilitated the creation of the Insight Peace and Conflict Group, international scholars and practitioners who employ Lonergan's "insight philosophy" to advance theory, practice, and method in the field of peacebuilding and conflict resolution.
- Published "Recovering Sargent Shriver's Vision for Poverty Law: the Illinois FamilyCare Campaign and the Insight Approach to Conflict Resolution and Collaboration" Clearinghouse Review: Journal of Poverty Law and Policy, Vol. 43, Nos. 9-10 (2010): 468-478.
- Published "Circulating Grace: Healing, Creating, and Lonergan's Economics," The Lonergan Review, Vol. 2, No. 1, June (2010): 326 – 339
- Secured a contract with University of Toronto Press for a book, The Insight Approach to Analyzing and Transforming Religiously Motivated Conflict, now being written
- Led the Board in an extended process of strategic planning and organizational development culminating in the creation of a university platform for promoting the legacy of Sargent Shriver and his commitment to public service and social justice

2003 – 2005 Expert Consultant

- Worked closely with the family of Sargent Shriver, and the 22 person Advisory Board to craft the mission, vision, and organizational structure of the Sargent Shriver Peace Institute

Institute for Conflict Analysis and Resolution (ICAR)

George Mason University

2010 Director, Insight Conflict Resolution Program

- Advances the insight approach to conflict resolution, pursuing research that critically grounds explanatory perspectives on conflict and integrates theory and practice
- Works to transform deep-rooted cultural conflicts that legitimate economic and social injustice, undermine human dignity, and create barriers to individual opportunity – with special focus on resolving cultural conflicts directly linked to issues of poverty and religion
- Trains practitioners in the insight approach to mediation, facilitation, problem solving, and conflict analysis.

2005 – 2010 Research Professor

- Advised students
- Directed graduate theses
- Taught graduate courses: Theories of Conflict; Religion and Conflict; Moral and Philosophical Foundations of Conflict Resolution; Qualitative Method in Conflict Resolution (Humanities)

The Shriver Center

University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC)

1996 – 2004 Founding Director, CLEARCorps/USA

- Developed and directed a community-based, family-centered, national AmeriCorps program designed to help families living in economically distressed communities protect their children from lead poisoning
- Developed program mission, service protocols, and evaluation procedures
- Led the creation of a national network of CLEARCorps affiliates operating in 12 States with 36 professional staff and 160 community service personnel and an annual budget of $2,000,000
- Secured program funding from private industry, government agencies, private foundations
- Managed an annual budget of $2,000,000.
- Led a staff of 10 at CLEARCorps/USA headquarters
- Directed training and professional development for both headquarters and network staff
- Negotiated the spin-off of CLEARCorps/USA from UMBC as a independent, 501c3, not-for-profit, charitable organization
- Developed by-laws for CLEARCorps/USA
- Recruited and staffed the first Board of Directors for CLEARCorps/USA

1994 – 2001 Director, Shriver Peaceworker Program

- Developed and direct a two-year, consortium-based, leadership development program for Returned Peace Corps Volunteers integrating graduate study, community service, and ethical reflection
- Developed and supervised Peaceworker community service placements
- Raised public and private money to fund 16 – 20 graduate Peaceworker assistantships annually
- Coordinated program activities across 10 universities, 15 academic departments, and dozens of community partners.
- Managed an annual budget of $600,000
- Taught graduate Peaceworker Pro-seminar in Ethics, Values, and Social Change
- Published, “Lessons in the Creation of a Setting,” with John S. Martello, Universities and Community Schools_5 (1997): 72 – 78.
- Published, “Naming and Framing Service Learning: A Taxonomy and Four Levels of Value,” with John S. Martello, Metropolitan Universities 7 (1996): 11 – 23.
- Published, “Christian Parenting and the (Gay) Child,” in Our Selves, Our Souls and Bodies: Sexuality and the Household of God, edited by Charles Hefling, Boston: Cowley Publications, 1996, pp. 105 – 116.

The Catholic University of America

Washington DC

1987 – 1993 Associate Professor, Department of Religion and Religious Education

- Advised students
- Directed Master’s and Doctoral Theses
- Taught graduate and undergraduate courses: Liberation Theology; Mystical Theology; History of Christian Spirituality; Contemplation, Action, and Social Transformation; Religion, War, and Non-Violence; Theology and the Critique of Culture
- Directed the Peace and World Order Studies program
- Published, “The Geography of the Soul: An Intellectual Map,” with Stephen Happel, in Nourishing the Soul: Discovering the Sacred in Everyday Life, edited by Anne Simpkinson et al, San Francisco: HarperCollins, 1995, pp. 59-70.
- Published, “Spiritual Awareness and Sacred Stories,” with Charles Simpkinson, in Sacred Stories: Healing in the Imaginative Realm, edited by Anne and Charles Simpkinson, San Francisco: HarperCollins, 1993, pp. 11-26.
- Published, “Mystical Texts as an Entry to the Cross Cultural Study of Religion,” in Relations Between Cultures, edited by George McLain and John Kromkowski, Lanham, MD: University Press of America, 1991: 291-304.
- Published, “Images and Transcendence,” Studies in Formative Spirituality 11 (1990): 195-201.
- Published, “Typologies and the Cross-Cultural Analysis of Mysticism: A Critique,” in Religion and Culture: Essays in Honor of Bernard Lonergan, edited by T. Fallon and P. Riley, Albany, NY: SUNY Press, 1987, pp. 81-90.
- Published, “Mysticism, Mediation and Consciousness: The Innate Capacity in John Ruusbroec” in The Innate Capacity, edited by Robert K.C. Forman, New York: Oxford University Press, 1998, pp/ 111 – 118.

1985 – 1986 Associate Professor, Department of Philosophy

1980 – 1985 Assistant Professor, Department of Philosophy

- Developed and taught the program in Religious Studies within the Department of Philosophy
- Advised students
- Directed Master's theses
- Named Georgia State University "Teacher of the Year," 1983
- Taught graduate and undergraduate courses: Introduction to Philosophy; Plato and Aristotle; Introduction to World Religions; History of Christian Thought; Augustine and Aquinas; Philosophy, Religion, and Ethics; Contemporary Religious Thought
- Published, "Bernard Lonergan and the Foundations of Contemporary Mystical Theology," in Lonergan Workshop V, edited by Fred Lawrence, Chico, CA: Scholars Press, 1985, pp. 163 – 195.
- Published, "Spirituality and the Future of the Human Spirit," in Beyond 1984: Annual Proceedings of the World Future Society, 1985.
- Published, "Mystical Transformation of Consciousness in Symeon the New Theologian," Diakonia 12 (1985): 6 – 20.
- Published, "The Objectivity of Mystical Truth Claims," The Thomist 49 (1985): 81 – 98.
- Published, "Conversion and the Doctrine of Grace in Bernard Lonergan and John Climacus," Anglican Theological Review 62 (1980): 336 – 362.